AgrAbility of Wisconsin Summit set for March 15th

MADISON, WI—AgrAbility of Wisconsin, together with the National Farm Medicine Center, is pleased to announce the annual Summit will take place Wednesday, March 15th, 2017, with registration starting at 9:00 AM. Lunch will be provided, and the event will run until 2:00 PM at the Froehlke Auditorium at the Marshfield Clinic in Marshfield, WI. All are welcome to attend at no cost.

“We are excited about the 2017 summit,” said Abigail Jensen, Outreach Specialist for AgrAbility. “The program we have in store for our attendees features presentations from leaders in the industry. AgrAbility staff looks forward to providing farmers with information on assistive technology for farms, important safety concepts, and succession planning.”

The daylong program gives participants an opportunity to network and learn about resources available through AgrAbility and other Wisconsin programs. Topics to be covered include assistive farm technology, safety on the farm, and finances and farm transitions.

Registrations will be accepted until March 3rd. Call 608-262-9336 or email aaw@mailplus.wisc.edu to reserve your space today and to get additional information. Registration will also be available online at: <https://agrability.bse.wisc.edu/>
